State Mission: The 102 OSS and DGS-MA as a whole help provide Intelligence Awareness and Assessment (IAA) functions to our state partners in times of crisis. Members of the 102 OSS have played critical roles in providing information for various environmental events throughout the country.

The 102nd Operations Support Squadron is comprised of 48 military and civilian personnel. The squadron has four branches. Weapons and Tactics ensure that DGS-MA remains on the leading edge of the weapons system. Training creates training material, sets training standards, and ensures compliance ensuring operators are well trained and prepared to perform their duties. Plans and Integrations manages mobilizations and deployments for the Group. Members of this shop also work hard to make sure that new equipment and software are seamlessly integrated into the weapons system. The Scheduling and Mission Management shop make sure that the flow of missions and people all line up effectively. They also ensure the continued quality of finished products.
