On a disc per fess Azure and Vert, a sword point downwards Or and a wrench open end upwards of the like in saltire. Overall, an aircraft affronté in fess Argent (Silver Gray) detailed Sable, all within a narrow bordure Gules per bordure of the Fifth. Attached above the disc, a Silver Gray scroll edged with a narrow Black border and inscribed "146TH AIRCRAFT GENERATION SQ" in Black letters. Attached below the disc, a Silver Gray scroll edged with a narrow Black border and inscribed "BELLATOR ET FABER" in Black letters. SIGNIFICANCE Ultramarine blue and Air Force yellow are the Air Force colors. Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force operations. Yellow refers to the sun and the excellence required of Air Force personnel. The green base signifies the terrain of California where the unit practices its trade of maintenance. The yellow cross arrangement of wrench and sword symbolizes, as does the motto, the unit's mission as "Warriors and Craftsmen." The gray stylized aircraft represents the wisdom and maturity of the crew as they maintain the Squadron's aircraft in a high state of readiness.
