

166 MISSION SUPPORT FLIGHT

MISSION

The flight's mission is to support commanders and members of the Delaware ANG, dependents and military retirees by providing military personnel policy interpretation, customer service, training, education, personnel utilization and progression, personnel systems management, recruiting, retention, readiness, personnel information management, and personnel support for contingency operations (PERSCO). The flight received an "Excellent" rating in its last Air Force Unit Compliance Inspection, and flight recruiting produced the most recruits in a given year for an ANG Recruiter in 2007. PERSCO troops recently deployed in support of Operations Joint Enterprise and Enduring Freedom.
