

352 SPECIAL OPERATIONS WING

MISSION

The 352 SOG's mission is the infiltration, exfiltration, resupply, and aerial refueling of special forces assets. The Group is the air component for the Commander, Special Operations Europe, and provides air assets to the U.S. Special Operations Command through the Air Force Special Operations Command. Principal units assigned to the Group include the 7th, 21st and 67th Special Operations Squadrons; the 321st Special Tactics Squadron, the 352 Maintenance Squadron and the 352 Operations Support Squadron. The group is comprised of more than 700 dedicated men and women from not only the Air Force, but also includes personnel from the U.S. Army and Navy assigned to the unit from Special Operations Command Europe.

EMBLEM

2 Air Commando Group emblem: On a white disc bordered blue an exclamation point flanked by two lightning flashes, all blue.

702 Strategic Missile Wing emblem: Azure, in base a demi-sphere light blue segmented by six arcs throughout argent, saltirewise overall issuant from sinister base a missile of the last with jet trail gules and from dexter base arras-wise a cubit arm proper grasping a sword of the third; in center chief a mullet of the like, all within a diminished bordure or. (Approved, 15 Feb 1961)

Azure, in base a demi-sphere light blue segmented by six arcs throughout argent, saltirewise overall issuant from sinister base a missile of the last with jet trails gules and from dexter base arras-wise a cubit arm proper grasping a sword of the third; in center chief a mullet of the like, all within a diminished bordure or. Motto: READY, ABLE. Significance: Against a background divided by the northern horizon into a deep blue area (representing a void, space, darkness, mystery and the enemy) and a lighter blue area (representing the peaceful, calm homeland), a missile streaking across the shield indicates the tactical weapon, while a powerful hand brandishing a sword (symbolic of ancient knighthood) represents each member of the personnel carrying out in a fine tradition his part of the wing's mission. The white arcs rising from the base of the emblem indicate lines of force emanating from the individual and expanding through organization to an infinite application. Over all rises the North Star, the guiding light of faith and hope. (Approved, 15 February 1961)
