On a disc Azure, in chief a cloud formation fesswise Argent and Silver Gray debruised by a Southwest Asian Greater Spotted Eagle rising, wings elevated and displayed body Sable, beak and feet Or, above in sinister base a dexter gauntlet of the third detailed of the fourth, all within a narrow border Black. Attached above the disc, a Green scroll edged with a narrow Black border and inscribed "STRENGTH THROUGH KNOWLEDGE" in Black letters. Attached below the disc, a Green scroll edged with a narrow Black border and inscribed "370TH AIR EXP ADVISORY SQ" in Black letters. SIGNIFICANCE: Ultramarine blue and Air Force yellow are the Air Force colors. Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force operations. Yellow refers to the sun and the excellence required of Air Force personnel. The Greater Spotted Eagle refers to the unit's location in Southwest Asia and represents the Iraqi Air Force's ability to fly again due to the assistance given by the United States Air Force. The clouds symbolize striving for perfection as the Squadron partners with Iraq in building a democracy. The gauntlet alludes to the guidance and expertise given to the Iraqi Air Force by the United States Air Force.
