

520th AIRCRAFT GENERATION SQUADRON

MISSION

The 520th Aircraft Generation Squadron, through its aircraft maintenance, weapons services, specialists and support branches and the transient alert section, provides safe, reliable, mission-ready aircraft in sufficient numbers to support the wing's operational commitment. Additionally, the squadron provides safe, reliable and timely munitions support to respond rapidly and effectively to sustain the combat strike and attack capability of the wing. The squadron also provides flightline support of all avionics systems installed in the wing's aircraft and servicing and maintenance support to all transient aircraft.
