EMBLEM

On a disc Azure, a sword point to base Silver Gray, the hand guard as a beam supporting a pair of balance scales Or, overall issuant from nombril behind the sword a contrail to sinister base ascending to dexter chief terminating in a delta Argent, all within a narrow border Black. Attached below the disc, a White scroll edged with a narrow Black border and inscribed "628TH COMPTROLLER SQUADRON" in Black letters. Attached above the disc, a White scroll edged with a narrow Black border and inscribed "CONVERTING FUNDS TO MISSIONS" in Black letters.

SIGNIFICANCE: Ultramarine blue and Air Force yellow are the Air Force colors. Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force operations. Yellow refers to the sun and the excellence required of Air Force personnel. The sword represents growing combat capability, while the scales are the universal symbol representing circulations of funds and the unit's expertise in balancing the budget. The delta signifies the Squadron's mobility and ability to provide financial support anywhere in the world.
