EMBLEM

35 Operations Support Squadron patch

35 Operations Support Squadron emblem: On a disc Azure, a Torii Gate Gules, in chief a stylized aircraft in perspective, fimbriated Argent, voided of the field, and issuing from base a weasel with affronté forepaws resting on the edge of the disc Proper, eyed of the second, shaded of the field, all within a narrow border Yellow. Attached above the disc, a Blue scroll edged with a narrow Yellow border and inscribed "WILD WEASEL" in Yellow letters. Attached below the disc, a Blue scroll edged with a narrow Yellow border and inscribed "35TH OSS" in Yellow letters. SIGNIFICANCE: Ultramarine blue and Air Force yellow are the Air Force colors. Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force operations. Yellow refers to the sun and the excellence required of Air Force personnel. The Torii Gate symbolizes the gate through which all new personnel to the unit pass. It also is a symbol of the geographic locale. The stylized flight symbol describes the unit's flight mission in support of the parent wing. The weasel stands for the developing tactics of the flying mission. (Approved, 11 Apr 2003)
