Authorized in the Regular Army on 10 June 1922 as the 47th Squadron (School), assigned to the 11th School Group, and allotted to the Seventh Corps Area. Organized on 1 September 1922 at Brooks Field, TX. Redesignated as the 47th School Squadron on 25 January 1923. Consolidated on 8 April 1924 with the 47th Aero Squadron (a WWI unit organized on 20 July 1917 at Kelly Field, TX; demobilized on 6 July 1919 at Camp Devens, MA; reconstituted on 8 April 1924). Transferred on 3 June 1927 to March Field, CA. Relieved from assignment to the 11th School Group on 1 August 1927 and assigned to the 13th School Group. Relieved from assignment to the 13th School Group on 30 April 1931. Transferred on 2 June 1931 to Randolph Field, TX, and assigned to the Air Corps Primary Flying School. Location 7 December 1941—Randolph Field, TX. Disbanded on 20 Apr 1944.

Units began arriving in June. The 70th Service Squadron came from Kelly Field to operate the base. The 47th School Squadron came from Brooks Field as the training detachment. The 95th Pursuit Squadron from Selfridge Field, Michigan, and the 11th Bombardment Squadron from Langley Field, Virginia, paused briefly at March before moving on to Rockwell Field, San Diego. Lastly, the 44th Observation Squadron and the 23rd Photo Section were both transferred from Post Field, Oklahoma. Later, the 53rd and 54th School Squadrons were activated, and the three training units placed under the 13th School Group. Plans called for 143 training planes, consisting of PT-1, -2 and -3s and DH-4s.

In line with the five-year Air Corps plan, a personnel buildup for tactical units began in the spring of 1931. However, a final entering class of 130 reported on March 1st for eight months training, so that base facilities could be fully utilized while making the transition. The class which had entered in November 1930, continued on schedule until June. Its departure for Kelly Field coincided with the arrival and activation of units. A new primary class also began in July and completed its initial four months before being transferred to Randolph for the second course. The 13th School Group inactivated on April 30, 1931, as did the 54th School Squadron. Transferred to Randolph was the 47th School Squadron on May 1st and the 53rd School Squadron on October 12th.
