The newly established 3660th BMTG was under the command of Col. Richard C. Greene (formerly Commander, 3740th BMTG, Sheppard AFB, Wichita Falls, TX). Soon the 3650th and 3670th BMTGs were formed. The initial Commander of the 3670th BMTG was Col. Raymond. C. Lewis. to reduce administrative overhead and span-of-control, the 60th and 70th were later to be merged into one 3650th BMTG, under the command of Col. Richard C. Boys

Initially the 3650th AFIW, SAFE, had three Basic Military Training Groups: 3650th, 3660th and 3670th. in approximately 1952 they were consolidated into one: 3650th BMTG, with its headquarters in Building Donaldson. The Group consisted of four Troops Please note that, depending on the era, as many as 24 Basic Military Training Squadrons were part of the 3650th

AFIW. Numerous consolidations over time reduced that number to approximately twelve. The BMT Squadrons were located in C, D, E, G, and H Areas. In July, Col. Richard C. Boys replaced Lt. Col. James R. Patterson as Commander, 3650th BMTG. During Col. Boys' command, the Troop organization was eliminated, leaving the following traditional Air Force organizational structure in descending order: Wing, Group, Squadron.
