OPERATIONS

In January 1943 the 82d Air Depot Group arrived at Abadan for a period of orientation before taking over from Douglas (Aircraft) in April.

On 12 August 1944, with assembly operations at Abadan entering their last lap, came official recognition that the function of Abadan Air Base had shifted from assembly to air operations. On that date the 82d Air Depot Group and the 18th Depot Repair Squadron were disbanded, and their personnel and equipment transferred to Headquarters and Headquarters Squadron, Abadan Air Base, with an aggregate strength of 26 officers and 502 enlisted men, plus 100 enlisted men attached additionally as Air Corps unassigned.
