pile Silver Gray, garnished, eyed and langued Red, all within a diminished bordure of the like. Attached above the disc, a Black scroll edged with a narrow Red border and inscribed "95TH AEROSPACE MEDICINE SQ" in Red letters. Attached below the disc, a Black scroll edged with a narrow Red border and inscribed "VOLNATI SUBVENIMUS" in Red letters. SIGNIFICANCE: Ultramarine blue and Air Force yellow are the Air Force colors. Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force operations. Yellow refers to the sun and the excellence required of Air Force personnel. The cross, taken from the parent organization's coat of arms, reflects the stalwart support the unit provides to wing personnel. The winged snakes entwined on a sword resemble a caduceus and symbolize the Squadron's specialized skills in aerospace medicine. The sword reflects the units support to the wing in defense of freedom.
