OPERATIONS

During August 1952 personnel began to be individually released from active duty with the Air Force providing a replacement was available AFSC and grade-wise. Once replacements came men of the 170th began returning to Springfield and home. Until the entire unit was released from active duty, a holding unit, the 8170th Air Base Squadron commanded by Cpt Robert J Spriet was formed at Springfield. By the end of November the squadron was released and reverted back to the State of Illinois, replacing the 8170th Air Base Squadron.
