Command and Control Warrior School

The C2WS conducts instruction to joint service personnel on doctrinal procedures for training. Emphasizing real-world plans and procedures, the C2WS is the executive agent for Contingency Theater Automated Planning System (CTAPS) and Air Tasking Order (ATO) training. Graduating more than 1,800 warfighters annually, the C2WS provides a seven-course curriculum using advanced computer systems and distributed technology, and conducts training for all ranks, from junior airmen to senior general officers. Training and certifying all its own instructors, the C2WS designs evaluation tools, and conducts student critiques, testing, and graduate-evaluation programs.

Instruction includes aerospace doctrine and relationship to the command, control, and employment of aerospace forces; airspace control as it affects the employment of combat aircraft weapons systems; and operational planning considerations for air operations C2.

The C2 Warrior School has a detachment at Ft. McPherson, Georgia and liaisons from the Army, Navy and Marines. Mission Develop and conduct the best C2 academics in the Department of Defense. Instruct selected joint-service personnel to conduct joint and combined theater air operations. Train the C2 Warrior to integrate Air, Space, and Information dominance into Joint/Combined operations across the full spectrum of conflict.
